“ For several years, I thought of Anne Marie as one of my spiritual mentors, Phil too. She was a true example of a Saint. Although, I never could understand the silent retreats she always wanted me to go to (look how long my "Share a Memory" is). One of my favorite memories is when she and Phil invited my brother and I to Thanksgiving dinner. My brother walked in carrying his own ice chest full of beer and rolled his own cigarettes. When I introduced him to Anne Marie, he reached out to her and said, "Pull my finger." I was mortified. In true lady like fashion, she started nodding her head from left to right with a shame on you smile on her face as she gave him a brush off movement with her hands. My brother responded, "Oh, you know that one already" and they both laughed. We had a wonderful time. When my brother stepped outside to smoke at one point, Phil said, "Julieanna, your brother is like a breath of fresh air." Finally, I exhaled. Rest in Peace Lovely Lady. God speed! He truly blessed me allowing me to get to know you. Thank you for loving me,
Julieanna
