

Adrian Ryan Poole

July 17, 1984 - March 29, 2023

Adrian Ryan Poole of Collierville, TN was born 7/17/84 and passed away on 3/29/23. We miss him already and can't help but wonder if he is waiting for Kira (his daughter) to play Fortnite, or if he is planning a trip for his lifelong partner Kamy. Is he giving a friend a lift somewhere or a place to live until they can get back on their feet? Is he reading about bourbon, anime cels or politics? Surely, he is doing something arty and creative. Surely, he is thinking about his beloved Aunt Gale.

Although we miss the depth of him, we are consoled in knowing that his big brain must be satiated by his new, all-knowing state, and that he now traverses untethered.
