

Anne McGaha

June 20, 1940 - February 24, 2026

Anne Leigh Moore McGaha

Anne Leigh Moore McGaha died on February 24, 2026. The daughter of Sarah Elizabeth Bailey and John Thomas Moore, she was born on June 20, 1940, in Memphis, Tennessee. She grew up in Whitehaven, Tennessee, where she graduated from Whitehaven High School.

Anne was married to George Sidney McGaha. She was preceded in death by her son, John Lloyd McGaha. She is survived by her husband George Sidney McGaha, her daughter Anne Leigh McGaha Garrett and three grandchildren, John England Garrett, Drew Williams Garrett, and Ashley Christina McGaha.

Anne attended Southwestern College, which is currently known as Rhodes College, and was a member of Chi Omega, graduating from the University of Mississippi. Anne enjoyed art, was an accomplished painter, a member of PEO F Chapter, LeBonheur Club of Memphis, Suburban Garden Club, various garden clubs, and the Germantown Charity Horse Show group. Anne was a member of the Germantown Presbyterian Church and Presbyterian Women.

A memorial service for her will be held at Germantown Presbyterian Church on March 12, 2026, at 10:00 in the morning. Interment services will be held at Edmonson Cemetery in Southaven, Mississippi, for immediate family only.

Memorials may be sent to the charity of the donor's choice.