

Barbara Anne Fischer Dirmeyer

August 28, 1932 - September 2, 2022

In the early morning hours of September 2nd, 2022, just five days after celebrating her ninetieth birthday, Barbara Fischer Dirmeyer passed away peacefully in her sleep. She is preceded in death by her husband of nearly fifty years, Edward Croissant Dirmeyer, Jr.; her brother, William Fischer; her sister, Mary Virginia Southwell; and her son, William Charles Dirmeyer. She is survived by three sons, Edward Dirmeyer III (Anne Howard), James Dirmeyer (Sheila Swett), and Robert Dirmeyer (Mary Mayhan) and three daughters, Gracemary Crouch (David), Susan Kirk (Jack), and Angela Fowler (Dean). She is also survived by her 13 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. While Barbara was able she was an active member of the Catholic Church of the Ascension. She was active in the Lady's Guild as well as the Birthright Organization of Memphis through her church. Her own yard was a horticultural showplace, and her love of gardening extended to others, including her church.

Holidays were always special at Barbara's house. And even though she lived her life on a budget, she always made sure her children felt special on their birthdays. All her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren have fond memories of decorating Christmas cookies with her.

Her children would like to extend their special thanks to the management and staff of the Village at Primacy Place for their tender care of our mother for the past seven years.

The funeral mass will be at 2pm on Friday , September 9th at the Church of the Ascension, 3680 Ramill Road, Memphis TN, with visitation in the Narthex beginning at 1pm.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or to the Church of the Ascension.
