“ Today I found out you went to Heaven. Sad and shocked is an understatement. Brian, was someone I'd known most my childhood and into most my adulthood. I met him on our schoolbus when I was 5. He was my neighbor and he rode usually in the back of the bus with all the cool teenagers. He was always kind and funny. He stood out with his wonderful smile, personality, and that wonderful red hair. He recently had made a birthday post to me Dec 2, 2025. I've saved it and will cherish his friendship and Love Always. Fly High Brother, & God Bless You and Yours.

“ Brian has been my brother since the 5th grade. We did everything normal brothers do. We partied. We fought. We finished each other's sentences. We even had our own holiday "Braig's Day Off". We would run around like a couple huddlems together having the time of our lives. We once skipped school and made a day of going to as many schools as possible that were not our own school. We got caught and weren't allowed to be in the same classes together. It just made us skip more. Lol. We made a joke out of it . He'd come up to me and tell me that he's not talking to me and I'd tell him I wasn't talking to him. Lol.
No matter how long we were ever away from each other, we always seemed to pick up right were we left off, brothers to the end. I can only imagine, we will pickup right where we left off the next time we meet. Brian will forever be with me as brothers always are.
