

Bryan Barry Borders III

September 2, 1991 - September 2, 2025

Bryan Barry Borders, III, was born in Memphis, Tennessee, on September 2, 1991, and sadly passed away on September 2, 2025, his birthday, at the age of 34. He had never married and had no children. He was preceded in death by his father, Bryan Barry Borders, Jr., known affectionately as Pete to his loved ones; his grandfather, Bryan Barry Borders, Sr.; his grandmother, Nova Mae Borders Deering; his grandfather, Rev. Roy Erskin Biggs; and his uncle, William (Buster) Deering. Bryan is survived by his mother, Kym Biggs Borders; his stepfather, Patrick Stroud; his grandmother, Anne Biggs Denniston; his step-grandfather, Rev. Richard Denniston; and his uncles, Richard, Tracy, and Thomas Borders, as well as his aunt, Elizabeth (Sis) Borders.

Bryan had a varied career, working for several companies, but his passion lay in becoming an electrician, a skill inspired by both his father and uncle. He enjoyed fishing and outdoor activities, such as bike-riding. He loved animals of all kinds; they seemed to flock to him. He had a lively imagination, and his creativity was apparent both in his drawings and the things he made for others.

Bryan's trusting nature and capacity for love were truly remarkable. He was a bright light destined to shine. With his captivating smile and intelligent mind, he effortlessly became the favorite of all his elementary school teachers. However, as he grew older, his passion for school began to diminish. By tenth grade, it was clear that academics were not his calling.

Bryan's introverted nature often led him to march to the beat of his own drum. During his life, and especially the last year of his life, he faced numerous challenges but remained determined to make a positive impact. He selflessly helped those in need, providing them with food, shelter, and compassion. His very last act in this world was protecting another human being.

A candlelight vigil was held in his memory on Friday, September 12, 2025, and was attended by those of his chosen family.
