“ Carmen was our anchor at Todd’s Auction and aquaTreasures Estate Sales. Her knowledge was shared and enduring as was her friendship and stabilizing effect. We became friends way back with Roebuck’s, Gene Elders and Todd’s. Dedicated, driving many miles to Memphis. We shared many events, holidays, and the day to day business, with the many estates, family situations, tears and laughs. From the dirt or elegant houses no one would go in looking for treasures, Carmen was with us. A special bond, no one understood, We will truly miss Carmen. Our regards to her family she loved dearly. Peace and treasured memories. Lamar and Helen Todd.

“ Carmen was my clerk at Brooks Auction Service in Covington for over 20 years. She started in the fall of 1996 & never left my side. She was committed, thoughtful, smart, sweet, & knew the auction business! I will miss her dearly! I have over 20 years of memories to hold on to. We've been through so much together. Not just all those auctions, but Thanksgivings, marriages, divorces, funerals, birthdays, laughs & tears, we were truly Auction Family! My family grieves with her family & countless others that loved her & treasured her friendship. May the Lord comfort us all! Amen.
