

Casaunda Larnett Smith

March 25, 1958 - September 29, 2015

Casaunda Larnett Smith, 57, of Memphis, Tennessee died September 29, 2015. She was born to Deloris and Doug on March 25, 1958. Casaunda was the fourth child and first daughter born to Deloris. She was preceded in death by both her parents and brother Sherdell.

Lorna or Lonnie as endearingly referred to by her family and close friends was raised on the North side of Chicago where she attended Schiller Elementary School and Edwin Gilbert Cooley Vocational High School. Casaunda relocated to Memphis in the late 1990s where she worked for Federal Express and Verizon Wireless.

Casaunda will be remembered for her vivacious spirit. In her younger years she loved to dance and model (self-taught). Her tall slender stature made it look almost effortless as she took control of the runway at neighborhood fashion shows and events. Casaunda also had quite the imagination. She was an avid and creative storyteller. Not many people would recall the same incident just as Casaunda, but by the time she finished her story, one might be left second guessing their recount of the incident—life reimaged.

Casaunda transitioned from this life leaving to cherish her loving memories two sons: Darryl and DeLandre both from Memphis, Tennessee; three brothers: Casell (Little Rock, AR), Charles (Milwaukee, WI), and Terrill

(Atlanta, Georgia); three sisters: Lavoris (Thomas) (Country Club Hills, IL); Yvette (Huntley, IL); and Tondalaya; two aunts: Doris and Jessie; one uncle: Henry; and a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends.

A memorial service will be held in Casaunda's honor in the near future in Chicago, Illinois.
