

Charlotte Taylor

October 13, 1954 - November 20, 2023

Charlotte Taylor was born on October 13, 1954 with beautiful red hair and a big personality to match. She was a devoted daughter to Hubert R. Taylor and Jessie Carlene Taylor and a beloved friend to many. She was gregarious, generous and funny but also opinionated enough that her friends knew she would tell you the unvarnished truth from her perspective. Charlotte talked to strangers everywhere she went, in the checkout line, in a waiting room, it didn't matter. Charlotte spoke if she had something to say. She was also the friend you called when times were difficult and painful. She had been through enough in her life that she knew what had to be done and she would help you in any way she could.

Charlotte was artistic in so many ways. She was interested in music when she was young, sewed her own clothes, made jewelry, drew landscaping plans and was a great cook. Charlotte would do "drive bys" where she dropped off, to friends waiting on the curb, a small sample of a dish she had concocted to enter into a cooking contest. Her friends were expected to eat the dish slowly and call her with their honest evaluations. Of course, each dish was something new and delicious (which is why we waited on the curb).

Charlotte also designed lovely greeting cards which she would send to any parishioner at Evangel Baptist Church who had a birthday, was sick or injured or had experienced a loss. This was one of her latest miniseries. Many people who received her cards kept them because they were so beautifully done. Her friends all have wonderful things in our homes made by and given to us by our talented friend. Charlotte left us on November 20, 2023 due to lung/heart issues. We lost her too soon and miss her terribly!

Her memorial service is on Thursday December 7th at 3pm. At Evangel Church 262 North Perkins.

“Charlotte asked me to visit her at the hospital near the end of her life. Although she was very ill, Charlotte kept up an animated conversation and displayed her characteristic fun sense of humor. She also clearly expressed her faith in her Lord Jesus Christ as the only source of righteousness and said she was ready to enter eternity with Him. Charlotte knew the truth of the Bible's teaching that those who trust in Christ will at death leave the body behind and be immediately present with the Lord.
