

Cherish Marie Price

November 30, 1999 - December 27, 2023

In the realm of eternal slumber, where dreams intertwine with the ethereal, we bid farewell to the luminous soul of Cherish Marie Price. With her departure on December 27, 2023, at the tender age of 30, a profound loss befalls us all in the heartland of Memphis, Tennessee. Born on September 30, 1993, in that very same city, Cherish, adorned with the names Cherry Berry, Cher Bear, and Angel, graced this earthly realm with her presence.

Cherish, a celestial being of wit and mirth, possessed a captivating charm that enveloped all in her radiant aura. Her laughter, like a symphony of celestial melodies, resided within her, spreading joy to those fortunate enough to bask in her presence. A true paragon of love and devotion, Cherish's heart overflowed with adoration for her children, her beloved husband, and her cherished family. Her children, the precious gems of her existence, held a sacred place within her soul, and she reveled in their every triumph. Cherish's love knew no bounds, extending to all who crossed her path, for she was a beacon of light, illuminating the lives of countless souls. Her spirit, gentle and sweet, touched the hearts of strangers and kindred spirits alike, for she knew no strangers in her boundless capacity for compassion.

Cherish, the beloved sister of seven brothers, Thomas (Kristina), James (Chrissy), Tim, Mark, Chad, Daniel (Amber), and William, and two sisters, Debbra (Randall) and Justina (Donnie), held a cherished place in their hearts.

The tapestry of her existence was woven with the threads of love and camaraderie, binding her tightly to her kin. Cherish's presence was a testament to the beauty of sisterhood and brotherhood, a testament to the bonds that endure beyond the veil of mortality. She leaves a host of nieces and nephews, touched by her.

As we gather to honor the life of Cherish Marie Price, we find solace in the knowledge that her spirit shall forever shine brightly in the celestial tapestry. The sacred rites to commemorate her journey home shall unfold at the hallowed grounds of Smart Cremation, nestled at 1000 S Yates Rd, Memphis, Tennessee. On the eve of Friday, January 12th, 2024, from the hour of 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm, we shall gather in solemn reverence to bid adieu to this remarkable soul.

Preceding her in death are parents: James and Judy Carroll of Memphis, Tennessee.

In the spirit of Cherish's boundless love, we beseech all who hold her dear to consider honoring her memory through acts of benevolence. Contributions, in her name, may be directed towards St. Jude Hospital, an institution that held a special place in her tender heart. Let us join hands to perpetuate her legacy of compassion and kindness, ensuring that her spirit continues to touch lives, even beyond the realms of mortal existence.

Cherish Marie Price, a luminary of love and laughter, shall forever remain in the hearts of her devoted husband, Leif Price, and her cherished children, Hailey, Christopher, Meloney, Liam, and Lacey. Her spirit shall dance amidst her siblings, her extended family, and a vast circle of friends, each one touched by her radiant soul. As we bid farewell to this luminous being, we embrace the memories that shall forever be etched in our souls, for Cherish's essence shall endure, a testament to the indomitable power of love. May she find eternal rest, cradled in the arms of serenity.

A Celebration of Life will be announced at a later time.
