

Claudette B. McGill

March 14, 1937 - August 29, 2020

Saturday , August 29th , 2020 , Claudette B. McGill, loving widow and mother of three children, passed away at age 83.

Claudette was born on March 14, 1937 in Englewood, NJ to John and Andree (Denault) Bogdan.

She graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in 1954; and, earned her Biology degree from Brown University in 1958.

On May 21, 1960, she married John J. (Jack) McGill. They raised two daughters, Anne (Jim) Perry and Sallie (David) Evans, and one son, Hugh (Valerie) McGill.

Claudette was devoted to her family and friends. She was an active leader in school PTA, Girl Scouts and Christian Family Movement in New York.

Later, in Alabama and Florida, she was a lay minister at church, choir member, and nursing home volunteer reader. She played golf in the ladies' league.

She loved her dogs: Gretchen, Sam, Holly, Zoe, and Jesse without reserve. Her joy in music was retained through her final years with Alzheimer's.

Claudette was preceded in death by her father, John, her mother Andree, her brothers, John and Peter, and her husband, Jack.

She is survived by her three children, and 5 grandchildren, Wesley Evans, Mary (Joe) Culp, Faith Perry, John Perry, Nicholas Gerbo, and multiple nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, September 4, 2020 at 1:30 p.m. CST at The Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church at 8151 Poplar Avenue, Germantown, TN 38138.

The family is planning a more public remembrance in Miramar Beach, FL in the summer of 2021.
