

Deborah "Deb" Jean Morley

June 16, 1951 - July 8, 2025

Deborah "Deb" Jean Morley (McNeese), beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away on July 8, 2025, in Memphis, Tennessee, at the age of 74.

Born on June 16, 1951, in Memphis, TN, Deb was the cherished daughter of the late Eugene D. McNeese, Sr., and Louise McNeese (Still). She was also preceded in death by her sisters Joanne Jones and Marcia Bishop and brother Carl "Bubba" Thompson.

Deb is survived by her devoted husband of 48 years, James "Jim" L. Morley, Jr., and their loving family: daughter Lesley N. Thompson and son-in-law Dennis C. Thompson; grandchildren Landon G. Thompson and Natalee "Lou" Thompson; son James "Doug" Morley and daughter-in-law Heather Morley; granddaughter Zelia "Lia" Morley. She is also survived by her siblings, Diana Savoie, Sandra Johnson, and Eugene D. McNeese, Jr., along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who were touched by her warmth and generosity.

Deb and Jim built a beautiful life together in Memphis, TN, before retiring to Hernando, MS. Known for her kindness, loyalty, and selflessness, Deb had a heart for helping others—she would gladly give the shirt off her back to anyone in need. Her Godly spirit of compassion enriched the lives of all who knew her.

A private Celebration of Life was held in her honor on July 20th, 2025, in Hernando, MS.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to one of Deb's favorite charities:

- St. Jude Children's Research Hospital
- LeBonheur Children's Hospital
- Wounded Warrior Project

Deb will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.
