“ I meet Dusty in 1992. We instantly took to each and never wanted to be apart. Well years past and our life's got in the way but one thing never changed our love. I never stop loving him. From his Jim carry impression to him never let me win at any card game. His smile his laugh the sparkle in his puppy dog drown eyes. He will live on in the memory or the hearts of everyone who knew him. As long as there a breath in me he will be loved. He always told me the George straight carrying your love with me was our song.
