

Edna Brown

July 29, 1931 - March 29, 2026

Edna Brown, age 94, of Memphis TN went home to be with the Lord on March 28, 2026, surrounded by her loving family. We rejoice in the promise of eternal life and take comfort in knowing she is now at peace in God's presence.

She was born on July 29, 1931, in Duncan MS. to Penola & Sidney Brown.. A devoted woman of faith, Edna Brown loved the Lord with all her heart and lived her life as a reflection of His grace. She was a faithful member of Cathedral of Praise. where she was a faithful member.

Edna Brown was a strong and determined woman who always wanted more out of life and was never afraid to go after it. She encouraged others to follow their dreams and believed deeply in creating opportunities for those she loved. She worked tirelessly to ensure her family had the things she did not have growing up, embodying the values of perseverance, sacrifice, and faith.

She was a hard worker, a devoted provider, and a loving grandmother who found joy in caring for her family. Her kindness extended beyond her home, as she was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Through her example, she passed down these values of strength, generosity, and determination to her family, leaving a legacy that will continue for generations.

She enjoyed gardening, seeing her grandchildren perform in the band and shopping with her daughter. Edna Brown cherished her role as a mother and grandmother. She found great joy in prayer and sharing God's love with others.

Edna Brown is now reunited in heaven with her beloved son, her parents, her sisters and brothers, and so many loved ones who went before her. While her family and friends grieves her loss, they find comfort in knowing she is surrounded by those she dearly missed.

She is survived by her sister, Ophelia Brown, her daughter, Arverster F Stevenson ; her grandson, James Finger Jr.; and her granddaughter, Briana Stevenson.

“Well done, my good and faithful servant...enter into the joy of your Lord.” —
Matthew 25:23

Though we mourn her passing, we celebrate her homegoing and the eternal life she now enjoys with her Savior. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
