“ I just found out about Ellen’s passing. We worked together on a training project at IP many years ago but we kept in touch periodically. I last spoke to her in April. She always signed her emails “love and light” and each conversation started with her saying “hello sweetie “. So sad she has passed.

“ Ellen was my trainer at International Paper back in 1998 when I joined the company in the Customer Service department. She was very passionate in her desire to deliver training and educate new hires on the tasks required to do the job. She was a joy to learn from and later work with. She was missed already but will be truly missed more now.

“ This is sad news. Ellen and I worked at The Games Store together and were roommates for awhile. This is way too soon.
