

Garret Lynn Woods

November 3, 1987 - February 6, 2025

Garrett Lynn Woods 37 of Senatobia, MS passed away on February 6, 2025.

Garrett graduated from Southaven High School. After graduating Garrett attended Steam Fitters Local Union 614 apprenticeship program earning the status of Journeyman in Commercial Heating and Air. His attention to detail earned him the respect of peers and the trust of clients.

Garrett had a deep appreciation of History spanning from Plato's dialogues of Atlantis to the First Principles of America established by the Founding Fathers. He enjoyed sharing fascinating stories and engaging others with his love of history. Garrett also loved the outdoors, reveling in the adventures of hunting, hiking with his family and enjoyed lazy summer days spent by the pool with his family. He also enjoyed cooking and took great pride in grilling the perfect cut of all kinds of meats.

Garrett's love for his daughter Harper was unmeasurable. He was a devoted father.

Garrett is survived by Harper, who will carry forward the joyful spirit that her father and mother nurtured in her heart. Garrett also leaves behind his parents, Jackie and Judy Woods, who provided him with lifelong support and love, his brother Grant Woods with whom he shared adventures and brotherly bonds, Grant's daughter Ella Rose Woods, his grandparents Bryant and Carol Johnson of Southaven, Sarah Hunton of Horn Lake, and Denver (Linda) Woods of Byhalia and many Aunts, Uncles and Cousins that loved him very much.

The family will be receiving friends and family Saturday, February 22 from 12:00-1:00 with services to begin at 1:00 at First Baptist Church in Southaven, MS located at 8888 Hwy 51.

“ I remember riding on the back of the truck bed with Garrett and the other kids after boating near luka, MS. We were being so silly and laughing about all the things.

He was a sweet kid with a beautiful smile.
