“ One of my favorite memories with Gary is when we did the Memphis in May Canoe & Kayak Race.

We had practiced quite a few times & had our paddling rhythm in sync. We felt pretty confident. However, the morning of the race there was heavy barge traffic on the Mighty Mississippi. We were in the wake of a huge barge AND fighting the wind. We paddled as hard as we could, feeling like we weren't even moving forward & hoping we didn't tip over & get swept away. It scared us both silly! When we finally rounded the end of mud island & got into the calmer water of the harbor, everyone was yelling "did you see the big barge?!?" We looked at each other & burst out laughing!!! See it? It dang near ran us over! We collapsed on the bank, soaking wet & laughing our heads off. We did a high five & were pretty proud of what we had accomplished & swore it was a "one & done" event! He was a good friend & a fine man. Rest in peace Gary. Thank you for being a good friend.

“ I am proud to say Gary is my sweet cousin whom I will miss so much. He always had the sweetest smile and was soft spoken and so kind. He always loved to tease me about something. That was his way of saying "I love you". If he liked you, you were a target of his humor. I loved it and always tried to top him with the snide remarks. One of the best memories I have is when our entire "Memphis family" came to my home to eat Thanksgiving Dinner. It was always hard to get everyone together at the same time, but this was one of those treasured times we all came together and ate and laughed and made fun of one another. How wonderful! I wish we had more of those good times.

Rest peacefully my sweet, you are loved now and always.
