

Georgia Steinbach Williams

October 4, 1931 - December 24, 2025

Georgia Steinbach Williams passed away peacefully at home on December 24, 2025.

Georgia

was born October 4, 1931 in Tomahawk, Wisconsin, daughter of the late Frances (Kershaw) and George Steinbach. As a child Georgia moved to Franklin, Virginia but always held Tomahawk and her Wisconsin family close in her heart and memories. An avid student, after high school she attended James Madison University and the Medical College of Virginia, becoming certified as a Medical Technologist through the American Society for Clinical Pathology, a ground breaking time in the development of the profession.

In 1951 Georgia married Cookie Williams, making homes and friends in Richmond, VA, Rocky

Mount, NC, Franklin, VA, and finally in 1973, Folkston, GA, where she remained after Cookie's death in 2009, until moving to Collierville, TN in 2017. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, daughter-in-law Cindy Coley Williams, sister Shirly Steinbach Camp, brother-in-law Billy Camp, and sister-in-law Ann Clark Steinbach. She is survived by her brother, Roger Steinbach of Suffolk, VA, her children, Susan (Neil) Burgess of Gallatin, TN, Ann

(Dale) Taylor of Collierville, TN, and George Williams of Bradley, SC, grandchildren, Greg (Kim)

Burgess of Vinton, VA, Amanda (Phil) Taylor of St. Charles, MO, Chandler (Brandi) Taylor of McClellanville, SC and Karl Williams of Rohnert Park, CA, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many close friends.

Georgia worked as a medical technologist for many years at Southampton Medical Center in Franklin, VA. In Folkston, she worked in the local State Farm Agent's office, getting to know and help the community, being fondly remembered by many as Ms. Georgia.

Over the years Georgia had many hobbies and volunteer experiences, always interested in learning something new, from being a Girl Scout as a child to most recently volunteering with Hospice of the Golden Isles. These include Junior League and Garden Club of Virginia, Sunday School Teacher and Altar Guild member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church in Franklin, VA, Good Shepherd Episcopal Church in Rocky Mount, NC, and Folkston United Methodist Church, Girl Scout Leader, Embroiderers Guild of America, and Garden Club of Folkston. Georgia loved gardening, studying plants and flowers, visiting nurseries and formal gardens, and planning and working in her own garden. She often returned home with a trunkful of plants and plans for them. An extensive reader, she could spend hours in a bookstore and would often be found in her den with her coffee and a book. Living away from her family, she always especially looked forward to visits to and from her parents, children, siblings, nieces and nephews. Her door and table were always open, even if dinner was often late. A lifelong enjoyer of animals, she almost always had dogs, cats, or both. Graveside service to be held at a later date, Pineview Cemetery, Folkston, GA. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to Charlton Public Library 1291 Indian Trail Folkston, GA 31537, to Hope Hospice and Palliative Care 3085 Fountainside Drive Suite 210 Germantown, TN 38138, or to your local library or hospice program.
