

Gwendolyn Jordan

April 14, 1955 - December 9, 2022

Gwendolyn Jordan, affectionately known as Lynne, was born on April 14, 1955, in St. Louis, MO, and passed away on December 9, 2022, in Olive Branch, MS. A devoted mother and grandmother, Gwendolyn cherished spending time with her family, which included her beloved daughter, Candace Keith, son-in-law, Max Keith, and her three adoring grandchildren, Harley Quinn Jordan, Leland Keith, and Tobi Keith.

Professionally, Gwendolyn was a dedicated accountant and tax preparer, known for her meticulous work and commitment to her clients. She was a vibrant spirit with a passion for life, enjoying hobbies such as couponing, riding her motorcycle, and shopping. Gwendolyn had a particular fondness for homemade mashed potatoes, fried green tomatoes, tomato sandwiches, and Mexican food, often sharing these meals with loved ones.

Music filled Gwendolyn's life, as she found joy in the sounds of The Beatles, The Eagles, Santana, and Van Morrison. She also enjoyed watching her favorite TV shows, "Guiding Light" and "The Bold and the Beautiful." Her adventurous spirit led her to create lasting memories at her favorite place, Gulf Shores, AL, where she often spent time unwinding with family.

Gwendolyn was known for her willingness to go the extra mile for her family and friends, embodying her mantra of "I got this." She is survived by her loving husband, Michael Jordan, who was her partner in life and love.

Gwendolyn's warmth, kindness, and zest for life will always be remembered by those who knew her. Her legacy of love and compassion will continue to live on in the hearts of her family and friends.
