She gave me lots of her time , words of wisdom , and dam she's a hell of a lota funny stories to tell . Jessica's momma Janice jones was also very much in love and loved by her husband mr. “ I was one of the nurses who took care of sweet Jan during one of her hospitalization's and didn't even realize until after I admitted her that she was a longtime friends mom. I am so honored to have been able to be there for her and the family during this already hard enough diagnosis. She was such a sweetheart and definitely made me laugh my whole shift. I will forever remember her and her impact she made on me as a nurse. Jessie, I am praying for you and your family during this incredibly heavy hearted time.
