

Janie Cleo Walters Joiner

November 2, 1955 - August 25, 2020

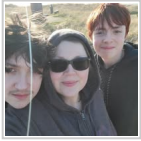

Janie Cleo Walters Joiner died August 25, 2020 from complications of stage IV cancer at Baptist Memorial Hospital Desoto in Southaven, Ms. Janie was born November 2, 1955 in Crockett, MS to her late parents Jimmie and Oma Walters.

Janie graduated in 1974 from Senatobia High School in Senatobia, MS. She married in 1976 to her late husband Thomas Duncan Rahm. She is survived by their two daughters, Rachel Vargas (Memphis, TN) and Wendy Najera (Southaven, MS).

Janie is also survived by her sisters Marilyn Townsend (husband Robert) of Southaven, MS, Wanda Ross (husband Carlon) of Strayhorn, MS, and brother Jimmie Walters Jr. (Wife Karen) of Abbeyville. Janie also leaves behind eight grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Janie's wishes were to be cremated without funeral services. However, there will be a celebration of her life in November. Details to be determined. In lieu of flowers, you can make a donation to her GoFundMe page to cover cremation services and memorial/life celebration expenses. https://www.gofundme.com/f/24e81ilvmo?sharetype=teams&member=5552872&utm_medium=copy_link&utm_source=customer&utm_campaign=p_na+share-sheet&rcid=ee13c3a6e47249f4bcf065a89f41eb36

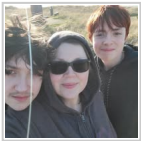

Tribute Wall

“ Wendy Najera lit a candle in memory of Janie Cleo Walters Joiner

Wendy Najera - September 01, 2020 at 09:47 PM

“ This is Mom at a very young age. Marilyn and Wanda, her sisters, also in the picture.

Wendy Najera - September 01, 2020 at 09:46 PM