LECLAIR, JASON CHARLES

12/17/1970 - 4/7/2020

Memphis TN

Jason Charles LeClair (Jay)

age 49, passed away in Memphis, TN.

Jason grew up in Ypsilanti MI where he enjoyed spending time at the lake with family and playing baseball. He later studied finance at Eastern Michigan University, spent years working in the mortgage industry, loved to golf and fish. He was incredibly intelligent, caring and kind. He never met a stranger, always saw the good in others and had a servant's heart.

Throughout his life he spent time volunteering at various organizations and churches, helping others. Ultimately, Jason struggled with significant health complications, yet still handled it with humor and courage. He expressed his love for his family and close friends who recently reached out with encouragement and support. He was especially grateful to the doctors and staff of Methodist North Hospital in Memphis TN for giving him more time with his daughter and close friends.

Jason is preceded in death by his mother Kathleen LeClair. He is survived by his daughter Taylor LeClair and son Logan LeClair; his brother Matthew LeClair (Diane); sister Lauren Benjamin (Kevin); his aunt Jeanne Liedel (Don); uncle Chuck LeClair (Laura); cousins, nephew, niece and great nieces.

A memorial for Jason will take place later this year for family and friends.

“ I saw this wonderful person when he was a small toddler and a very little boy as a guest in my home. His mother was my niece. This is painful to learn. Jason, Kathleen, and my darling Sister Jeanne, Jason's Grandmother, RIP. Each and everyone of you were taken too soon. I see your beautiful mother in this wonderful picture. RIP with those who loved you.
