“ We were best friends growing up. My mom could always find me at Joe's house. He was like a brother. In the summer time we would take his push more go door to door asking to mow yards and make money so we can go swimming all day at the pool in Lincoln Park in Pittsburgh. KS. Go rest high on that mountain Joe...

“ Joseph was a funny child who liked to play occasional pranks. He had been fishing and came back with a few fish. Since there was water in the bathtub, that is where he put his fish. Never mind about there being bubbles in the water. We heard a scream outside and several of us ran in. Rose was standing with her robe around her and bubbles. She was going to take a bath and was not amused bathing with fish. It may or may not have been an accident but we all laughed, including Rose including Rose after the fish were removed, tub cleaned and she was able to take a bath. By the way, the fish were not much bigger than minnows. Rest in Peace, Joe.
