

Lana Lucy Dimming

July 13, 1942 - January 28, 2023

Lana Lucy Dimming peacefully slipped away on Saturday, January 28, 2023 after 80 years of life. She is survived by her loving husband, Jesse Dimming; three brothers: Ken Blackman(Terri), Harold "Jake" LaFayette(Brenda), and George LaFayette(Julie), and her children: Ayron Kamp(Amy), Eric Kamp, David Kamp, Kyong Kamp (widow of Daniel), and Joanne Becker. She had 14 grandchildren: Philip Kamp(Michelle), Steven Kamp(Melody), Kayla Walker(Jordan), Timothy Vickers(Tara), Matthew Mazur, Kaitlyn Kamp Carol Kamp, Chelsea Kamp(Wayne), Tyler Kamp, Morgan Mosher(Austin), Brayden Kamp, Jayden Kamp Joshua Kamp(Kriszha), and Collin Kamp Lana also had 14 great grandchildren: Phiona, Philip, Merida, Macguyer, Oliver, Riley, Brynn, Jade, Blaze, Clarity, Nash, Logan, Porter, and Lincoln Lana was born in Herkimer, NY and moved to Memphis in 1995. Here is where she met and married her husband Jesse in 2002. She loved her family, and would light up at being able to see her grandchildren. Lana enjoyed listening and singing country music (especially Charlie Pride), and loved to watch sports on TV. She saw beauty in the simplest things in life. Lana will be missed greatly by all.

The family request no flowers be sent.

Tribute Wall

“ The one thing I'm hearing the most from everybody is that Mom had a laugh that was always there , infectious to others , and something that people remember best about her. Mom would start laughing and it would turn into silly giggling or some times even a snort or two would come out , just making it even more funny. Mom , I love you and will cherish the moment when we can all join together again in Heaven. Eric Kamp

Eric Kamp - February 15, 2023 at 09:36 AM

JS

She also had a sarcastic side to her! She had a great laugh. Sorry for your family's loss

Jill Jochen Sturges - February 16, 2023 at 03:02 PM