

Marvin Johnson

September 10, 1954 - October 16, 2024

Marvin Johnson, age 70, transitioned peacefully on October 16, 2024.

Marvin was born in Memphis, TN to Ceola and Willie Johnson. He attended the Memphis City Schools, graduating from South Side High School and the University of Memphis, where he received a Bachelor of Science in education. Marvin dedicated his life to teaching in the Memphis City Schools and Bartlett City schools for 25 years.

Marvin loved to read and enjoyed watching the Tigers play basketball. He loved music as well as dancing, and he was a proud member of Phi Beta Sigma fraternity.

He is survived by his spouse of 48 years, Rollin Kocsis, his aunt Gwendolyn Glenn, and a host of beloved cousins and friends.

Marvin's 'Celebration of Life' gathering will be held on Saturday, Nov. 16, from 10 am until 12 pm at the Starlight Event Center, 895 N. White Station Rd, Memphis, TN 38122.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ OG Whitney Elementary family!

Sonya Stone - November 04, 2024 at 08:01 PM

MT

“ Marvin was one of the BEST teammates I've ever worked with! Those who worked at Whitney with us called him my “work husband”. We worked very well together as a partners in 4th grade. Marvin was an all-around hilarious person and he kept me laughing from funny things he would say. I often told him he missed his calling of being a comedian. He will forever be remembered and missed by his Whitney Elementary family.

Mrs. Tee - November 02, 2024 at 11:36 AM