“As his cousin, I can tell you Monte was one of a kind. He was from a small railroad town(Pitcairn) in western PA. He was from a predominant well known family so growing up everyone knew Monte. The family would say, “did you know what Monte did now?” That doesn’t mean he got in trouble but he was always full of surprises! Family gatherings were always eventful when Monte was around! He would have us all in stitches.

As a young man he was good looking and free -wheeling. His good looks, jokester attitude and charisma made him an excellent bartender! He could hold court from behind a bar!

He was a true (yinzer) a person from Pittsburgh. He loved his Pittsburgh sports teams. He seemed happiest following the Pirates, Beat ‘em Bucs! He knew statistics from players from our childhood! When we were in college together, we would get up a 7:00 am to watch the Stooges even if we didn’t have a class until afternoon. We both loved watching the boys. Later in our life we would usually end our calls with a line from the Stooges.

We were all proud of his sobriety and his new found faith. He never missed meetings so he could help others in their struggles!

Jill Cane mentioned, in your memories, Monte was the first to call family members on the day of their Birthday! He was our family Historian. He would always remind us of the dates of family members passing and anniversaries.

The thing that was most important was his family! He loved his wife of 47 years, Sandra! He cherished his two daughters, Sundee and Brookie. He adored his granddaughter and three grandsons. He was so proud of them. He would always fill me in on what was happening with all of the family.

Our condolences to his Brother, Keith and his family! I know this has been unreal for Keith being Monte’s senior. He loved you and you always had his back.

Sandra, Sundee, Brookie, Araiya and boys, we know the pain in your hearts! Know he will always be looking over you with love. Keep his memory inside of you.

You are missed by your family and friends and especially by me, I miss you more than ever.

“ Monte and I were high school classmates and we never lost our connection, even if a few years went by, we always treasured our longtime friendship. I could tell many stories but one was going to the drive in theater (the best!) with a group of us in the trunk and laughing 😂 so hard until we were parked and could get the heck out! We always had such goooood fun and the dancing to all our favorite songs : High on a Hill, Maybe, Duke of Earl, Oh What a Night!!!! To name a few. And never forget The Burke Glen Ball Room!!!! The memories are never ending. 💕

You have gone to heaven Monte but will forever live in my heart and others' hearts , I will always love you and think of you my friend.

Rest easy, you are at peace ❤️🙏🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️🕊️
