

Nancy Stewart McSwain

December 18, 1942 - June 24, 2023

Nancy Stewart McSwain, 80, of Memphis, passed away 6/24/2023 after a courageous battle with cancer. Nancy was born in Atlanta, Georgia on 12/18/1942 to Grady and Rebecca Stewart. She went to high school at Southwest DeKalb High School and graduated in 1960. After high school she worked as an executive assistant with Mass Mutual and Lithonia Lighting. In 1967, she met the love of her life on a blind date at an Atlanta Braves game. Little did she know how many ballgames she would get to see over the course of her marriage and being a mom. She married Roger McSwain of St. Charles, Arkansas on 7/2/1971. After their boys came along, she stayed at home and was the best mom a kid could dream of having. She fiercely loved Jesus, her family, and many friends. She was one of the most encouraging people and was always trying to let others know she genuinely cared. She loved to sing in the Balmoral and Ridgeway Baptist Church choirs and would occasionally have a solo during morning services. She was also a very talented cook, and never complained about not getting much help from the boys. As the boys got older, she ventured into the Avon business and was not only a successful businesswoman but made many special friends over the years. Nancy is survived by her husband of almost 52 years, Roger McSwain; children, Lance (Vicki), and David; sister, Carol Horton (Frank); niece Rebecca Jones (Kirk); nephew Bill Moon (Margaret); great-nephews, Austin Coleman, and Matt Moon; great-niece Abby Coleman; many special cousins and a host of loving friends. Special thanks to Mrs. Cathy Gross, whom we consider family, for all the love and compassion she showed our mom and family. Additional thanks to Mr. Chip Hunter, Mr. Jim and Mrs. Linda Busby for their support and love during this time. Thanks also to the truly kind and compassionate staff at Methodist Hospice for making her last days as comfortable as possible.

A celebration of life will be held at Ridgeway Baptist Church in Memphis on 6/30/23 at 2:00 with Bro.

Jerry McNeer of Grenada, MS officiating. The visitation will be at the church at 1:00.
