

Norman J. Bresemann Jr.

October 7, 1956 - September 9, 2023

Norman J. Bresemann Jr. , known as Uncle Bud to his nieces and nephews, passed away on September 9 th, 2023 at the age of 66. He was a loving husband and father to his family, and a favorite uncle of his nephew Andrew. Norm married his loving wife of many years Pat on December 31st, 1993. He was a loving stepfather to his two stepdaughters Heather and Megan, as well as his son Michael. Norm was surrounded in his later years by a plethora of grandchildren, namely Max, Brandon, Maden, Matlynn, and great grandson Micah.

Norm had an extensive career with the Commonwealth Edison Co, starting in the truck maintenance shop and moving into a lineman position. During this time, he put himself through college and promoted into a position with the safety department. The next step for Norm was into the Human Resources department where he excelled and was promoted several times. He became known as something of an HR troubleshooter, and was transferred from station to station handling complex human resource issues. Norm ended up working at the executive level in HR at Com Ed until he left the company in 2001. Following a successful HR career at Com Ed, Norm worked as a Senior Executive Vice President in human resources for other companies before retiring to a comfortable life in Nesbit, MS.

Norman enjoyed fast cars, properly chromed motorcycles, and a good game of golf. He appreciated every one of his friends he had over the years, and had some great times with all of them. Norm lived in many places over the years, including Arizona, Wisconsin, Illinois, Pennsylvania, and Mississippi. Every place that he lived and worked, he acquired friends. Norm was a guy who would go out of his way to help out anybody he considered friends or family. From loaning his cars to nephews for prom, to buying real estate to help out family members, to opening a bar called the Country Club Cowboy, Norman was a guy willing to put his time, talents, and money to good use to help folks out. Norms nickname was "Stormin' Normin".

Norman is survived by his wife of 30 years Patricia Bresemann, his son Michael Selander, and stepdaughters Heather Janssen and Megan Doherty. He is also survived by 5 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Norman is additionally survived by his brothers Jim [Cheryl], Perry [Linda], and Frank and his sisters Patty [Craig] and Kathy [Bob]... as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents Norman J. Bresemann Sr. and Marjorie Bresemann.

Norman will be deeply missed by just about anyone who knew him. The long and short of it is that his passing will leave a mark on our hearts and will be remembered for a long, long time.
