“ Pam Bullard was an angel. She had an enormous, beautiful heart and always put others first, whether it was her family, friends, employees or acquaintances. She extended this compassion and kindness to animals as well. Pam’s caring nature didn’t stop there. She was an advocate for social justice and never hesitated to stand up for victims of prejudice and intolerance. On the lighter side, Pam had an infectious personality, very quick wit and a great (twisted) sense of humor. I share in the deep sadness I know everyone who knew her is experiencing right now but am extremely grateful she was part of my life.

I found a Memphis Airport restaurant receipt from April 1991 in a copy of Inner Reaches of Outer Space with her name printed on it! I was curious so I searched her name and am happy to have learned more about her! It sounds like we would have got along.
