

Pamela Jean Salzgeber

October 5, 1970 - May 3, 2024

Pamela Jean Salzgeber (née Bickell), age 53, of Olive Branch, Mississippi, passed away on May 3, 2024. Born on October 5, 1970 to Nova and Lorraine Bickell, Pamela lived a life marked by faith, love, and an unshakeable spirit. She leaves behind her devoted husband, Michael, her proud parents, her loving brother Jeff, and his wife Carrie. Additionally, Pamela was the cherished mother of Kyle Salzgeber (Nichelle), Karen Salzgeber, and Anna Roberts (Jordan). Each of her children reflect her integrity, intelligence, strength, and kindness.

A woman of deep faith, Pamela dedicated her life to embodying the teachings of Jesus Christ. She was not only a spiritual anchor but also the heart of her family, constantly guiding and nurturing with both grace and truth. Her legacy as a mentor and confidante remains a testament to the profound impact on all who knew her.

Her home was a testament to her life, reflecting a deep and sustaining partnership with her husband. A peacemaker at her core, she approached conflicts with a rare fairness, striving always for resolution over victory. As a mother, Pamela was fiercely protective yet deeply supportive, guiding her children with both wisdom and warmth.

Pamela was most at home working with her hands on projects, both at home and at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Memphis where she proudly served as a Nehemiah volunteer for several years. Her hands were as skilled as her heart was generous. Pam also served on the church council at CTK where she quickly gained a reputation for service, discernment, and courageousness.

Pamela's journey was one of continuous growth, love, and selfless dedication. Her memory will be honored as a beacon of faith, a foundation of strength, and an endless reservoir of love. Her life was not without its struggles which she faced with bravery and an open heart.

A service of remembrance will be held at Christ the King Lutheran Church, Memphis TN, on June 22nd. Visitation at 10am, service at 11am. The family invites all who knew Pamela to join in celebrating her remarkable life.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Showhope.org, a charity dedicated to helping parents overcome financial challenges when adopting children. Show Hope was an organization dear to Pamela's heart.

For those who knew her, Pamela's spirit, love, and wisdom will live on in us forever.
