“ Reggie was so unassuming; always extending courtesy to others. One of my favorite memories of Reggie is watching him assist with the bathing and dressing of Hunter and Ethan. I watched him come down the stairs with the one of the babies in his arms, holding him close and speaking gently. It was in that moment that I realized why his nieces and nephews loved him so much. Reggie didn't really know my mom; however, he never spoke to me unless he reminded me of how she dressed and how she always looked so nice. My Dylan says that he'll remember his uncle Reggie for the kindness extended to him and because he always encouraged him to succeed. Reggie will remain with us in our hearts and in our memories. Family, let your memories bring you peace.

“ Good Morning English Family, My prayers and condolences are with all of you at this time of mourning and grief. I'm a friend of Joseph and Tommie in Houston, TX and my heartfelt sympathy is with Joe, Tommie and Brooke at this time. There is no greater sorrow than when a brother dies. It leave a void that no one else can fill...I can empathy because my oldest brother passed away on in 2011....and I still miss him. So keep your eyes on Jesus and lean on him for strength and comfort during this time and the God of Peace will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Blessings and Shalom be with all of you during this time and always. Lois Gallien, Houston, TX

“ I have fond memories of "Reggie. " Having known him most of his life it was a pleasure to watch him grow into a mature young man. He was extremely gifted in so many ways. I admired his scholarly demeanor. He will be missed by family and friends. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Every family needs a Reggie and few have one. He always looked to serve and never looked for praise. My heart hurts. I know the Lord makes no mistakes. Love and miss you.
