“ I REMEMBER Steven as a very vibrant friend of my son. Everyone around him was always laughing at his wit. I remember his beautiful picture he made for the art fair at school and won. When I asked him how did he learn to draw and paint so well .He humbly attributed this talent to his mother. I remember how he played beautifully in the band and how adept he was at corralling his little brother. Our prayers go out to his family. God bless you all.

Donna, do you remember the time he was at your home and had a plunger on his head? I don't remember why. But for some reason I remember that. Lol
