

Susan Carey-Hamm

January 18, 1949 - July 18, 2015

Susan Carey-Hamm, 66, passed away on July 18, 2015 with her daughter Trinity Craner and sister Ronadin Carey by her side. The passing of her husband and love of her life Kenneth Hamm on September 13, 2014 proved to be too hard on her soul. Her health quickly deteriorated and after a brief hospital stay she has now joined her beloved Kenny in the afterlife.

Susan was born on January 18, 1949 in Menomonie, WI. Susan graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stout with her Master's Degree. She spent most of her career working with special needs children and adults. Susan retired from the Memphis City School system in 2010 after working as a Special Education Teacher for 11 years. She also leaves behind a step daughter, Corinne Hamm, two grandchildren; Dakota Blunt and Christopher Moses, a niece and nephew; Kristin Wood and Scott Kowalsky. She will also be greatly missed by her friends and second family at JR's and her three puppies; Puddin, Bouzer, and BG.

She will be joining her parents Freda Carey and Ronald Carey in Mason Cemetery, in Mason, WI at a later date.
