

Victor A. Huddleston

January 4, 1969 - September 23, 2024

Victor Alexander Huddleston, Sr., 55, gained his wings on the morning of September 23, 2024. Born on January 4, 1969, in Knoxville, Tennessee, Victor was the beloved and youngest son of Vastee Clarence Huddleston, Jr., and Beatrice Obelia Alexander. He grew up surrounded by the love of his family and friends, making memories that will last a lifetime.

Victor's life has always been filled with love and laughter, and during his early years, he became known as the lighthearted "Vic." Victor attended and graduated in 1987 from Central High School in Knoxville, Tennessee. As a young adult, he joined the United States Navy, in which he was able to travel the world and served his country from 1987 to 1995 during the Gulf War. Following his time in the Navy, Victor continued his career in corrections, excelling as Captain at Silverdale Correctional Facility in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and recently at Whiteville Correctional Facility in Whiteville, Tennessee. Victor was very proud to be a leader, and he was a fun addition to his team, always singing and dancing and turning bad days around for good. In 2022, Victor received the Employee of the Year award.

Victor spent time living in Tennessee, Montana, and Virginia, where he had many relatives and friends and was affectionately known to some as "Eric." Outside of work, he loved spending time with his family, especially his youngest son, "Little Victor." He enjoyed grilling, singing karaoke, watching his favorite shows such as "90-Day Fiancé" and "Game of Thrones," and of course, watching his beloved UT Volunteers and Dallas Cowboys. Victor always enjoyed having a good time and a great laugh. Those who knew Victor will remember his infectious charm, humor, his storytelling, and extraordinary personality that made him truly unforgettable. Above all, Victor's greatest love was for his children, whom he loved very deeply. He beamed with pride whenever he spoke of them.

Victor was predeceased by his daughter, Victoria Alexis Huddleston; his mother and father, Vastee C. Huddleston, Jr. and Beatrice Huddleston; his older brother, Vastee C. Huddleston, III; and his niece, Anecissa Brown.

Victor's legacy lives on through his daughter, December Huddleston; four sons, Ricky Duncan (Caitlyn), Zion Murray, Victor Huddleston, II, and Dondrea Thorne; his two grandchildren, Ryler and Amari Duncan; and his loving and longtime girlfriend, Jenna Boe. He is also survived by his loving aunt, Clara Royal Hurdle (Sherwood); his siblings: Tracy Huddleston Lewis, Linda Huddleston, Preston Huddleston (Carol), Kesha Booker, Laura Brown, and Randy Carper; Special nieces: Michelle Huddleston, Keyonna Ballinger, India Huddleston, Mykel Mills, Jaminka Marsh, Laurecissa Brown, and Ablessing Brown; Special nephews: Kevin Huddleston, Brendan Huddleston, Robert Huddleston, "Little Preston" Huddleston, Jeland Marsh, and Micah Brown. He will be dearly missed by a host of other nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and sister-cousin, Joyce Harris, in-laws, and special friends, including dear friend and ex-wife, Francine Huddleston.

Our hearts will forever bear the imprint of Victor's bright spirit and the love he shared with those around him. Victor's memory will continue to live on through all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
