“ I will never forget how Billy could make anyone laugh no matter how grumpy someone was he made everyone around him enjoy life at that moment in time. He was the life of the party and new it too but he never made it a bad thing . Billy loved everyone his wife Renee and all of his kids and grandkids with his whole heart with passion. You will be missed by more than he would ever know . I will always remember the times I was around Billy he would pick on me as I was a kid when I was around him and he made the best impression on my life he told me once while deer hunting to always love life and that will make life easier. Thanks Billy I have lived by that and I believe you were right my friend . I'm a better man to have known you , rest easy Billy we will take over for now . Charles Fox
