“ David young you will be missed. This world has lost another strong big hearted man, who has touched so many lives. A man who could've a gentle, giant. A friend that grew into my brother, the uncle my children know, love, and trusted they could depend on and one that taught us each and everyone of us life lessons that we will need time and time again. Then my grandchildren especially McKinley would just bomb you with questions cause even as a child she knew where to get the answer from, the one everybody calls on when they need help. Uncle David can fix it. But two of the memories that stuck out David had some issues we were talking about how to help him. When my grand, daughter was 3 yrs old disappeared. I went to check on her and found her kneeling beside her bed her little hands folded, I just stood in her doorway quietly until she noticed me there. When I ask her what she was doing " I'm praying for my uncle David.
